

Seminar for Peace Education

1.12.2009

On the 26-28th of November, 16 University Students took part in a Seminar in the Georg-Zundel House. The seminar was held in conjunction with the major of study early childhood education offered by Esslingen College and focused on conflict management issues relevant for that age group. Topics included conflict, aggression, and violence; mediation programs, violence in media, and learning democracy.
